About the Department

The Department of Master of Business Administration at GNDEC, Bidar, was established in the year 2006 with an initial intake of 60 students. It offers dual specializations in Human Resources, Marketing, Finance, and Business Analytics, striving to deliver holistic management education. The department is committed to fostering managerial excellence and leadership through dynamic teaching methodologies, including lectures, case studies, role-plays, workshops, expert talks, and seminars. Students gain real-world exposure through industrial visits, guest lectures, and strong industry-academia interactions. Focusing on overall development, the department ensures that students enhance their communication, analytical, and leadership skills, preparing them for successful corporate careers. A well-structured placement support system, supplemented with aptitude training and soft skills development activities, further equips students for the challenges of the modern business world.
